

Transcript - Mahnaz Hossain Fariba - Alumni Story

00:00 - 00:05

Bangladesh

Working to ensure that people are staying at home during COVID-19 pandemic

00:06 - 00:08

Mahnaz Hossain Fariba - Graduate

MSc International Health and Tropical Medicine

00:08 - 00:10

"We are informing people regarding the importance of staying at home."

00:10 - 00:16

2000+ Executive Magistrates

Are working to create awareness of physical distancing and the importance of remaining indoors.

00:16 - 00:20

You can see that most of the shops are closed.

And there are not much people on the roads because of this situation.

So government has entitled us with duties to keep people at home.

00:32 - 00:35

Inside the shops, physical distancing is observed.

00:49 - 00:51

Shops physical distancing

01:02 - 01:03

Quarantine street

Checking updated on the health condition of the quarantined.

01:04 - 01:07

The MSc in International Health and Tropical Medicine is a one-year course that integrates several types of knowledge relevant to tackle global health challenges among communities and nations living with less resources.

01:08 - 01:12

It aims to equip candidates with the tools and awareness to contribute to innovative sustainable solutions.