

On behalf of the organisers, Professor Mike English invites you to

Crossing Boundaries 2018

A Conference on Global Health Systems Research

Thursday 6 December · Nissan Lecture Theatre, St Antony's College, University of Oxford

Crossing Boundaries showcases the breadth and forms of multidisciplinary research employed to strengthen health systems in low- and middle-income countries. Keynote speakers will introduce participants to a range of key methodologies and issues from across the spectrum of health systems research. The event is an ideal opportunity to learn about health systems research, network, find collaboration opportunities, and showcase your work (see abstract submission information below).

Featuring keynote talks from:

Professor Lucie Cluver

Department of Social Policy and Intervention
University of Oxford

Professor Lucy Gilson

School of Public Health and Family Medicine
University of Cape Town

Professor Kara Hanson

Department of Global Health & Development
London School of Hygiene
& Tropical Medicine

Professor Carl May

Professor of Medical Sociology
London School of Hygiene
& Tropical Medicine

Doctor Eleanor Murray

Saïd Business School
University of Oxford

Doctor Chris Paton

Nuffield Department of Medicine
University of Oxford

Doctor Freddie Ssengooba

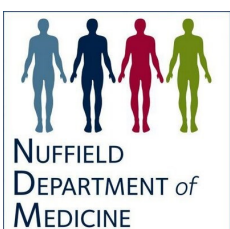

School of Public Health
Makerere University

Professor Charles Vincent

Oxford Patient Safety Collaborative
University of Oxford

Abstract submissions for rapid oral/poster presentations are invited from early career researchers and DPhil students. Registration is also open to general conference delegates and will close at 12pm on 30 November. Early registration is advised; first come, first served. Contact crossingboundaries@ndm.ox.ac.uk with questions.

Register and find further details at crossingboundaries2018.eventbrite.co.uk

